Love is the first thing Mouse feels as he lies in the warmth of his mother’s fur. Then one day, Mouse meets Bear. Mouse is frightened, but what if Bear is not as scary as he seems . . .

Ron finds himself in a spot of bother when he needs to leave his post. Can the corgis help Ron and fool the Queen? This gleeful tale will delight young and old.

_A gentle tale about reaching for the stars and being extraordinary ... but remembering the ordinary too._

“Have you ever felt as if you don’t quite fit in? A bit like a square peg in a round hole?”

One of the difficulties of growing up is not fitting in or feeling different. This book lovingly addresses this issue in a bright and positive way, allowing its readers (of all ages) to take heart and celebrate their difference.
