

Media Pack 2019

A truly local magazine in the heart of the community!

Your Steyning is printed monthly and distributed door-to-door throughout the town as well as in local restaurants, libraries, shops and the post office.

The magazine is the first port of call for local people who want to share information or find out what's going on in the community. This makes it the ideal vehicle for small businesses who want to communicate with their customer base.

We have underpinned the success of the printed magazines with a highly effective social media profile which supports our advertisers and draws new readers to the magazines.

Community groups and organisations can add their events to the website directly for free which means our website is always up to date with news and events going on in the community and surrounding area.

Very high print quality

We are VERY proud of the work that we've put into getting the look and feel of the magazine right. Your advert will look just the way your designer intended and you will be thrilled when you see your brand represented in a beautifully produced document.

Truly Local

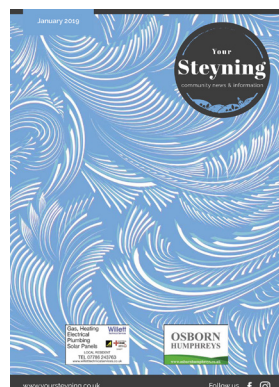

We feature up-to-date and relevant community news. Our advertisements and editorial pieces are all created by local people. This means that you are not going to find any outsourced articles. Our readers know that they are getting a genuine snapshot of local life.

Longevity

The high print quality and local nature of the magazine mean that our readers keep it on their kitchen counter or coffee table as a reference for the entire month. They may not need your services today, but when they do, this is the first place they'll look.

Additional support

When you advertise in our magazines, you get a free listing on our website, help with your artwork and, where appropriate, additional advertising support on our social media channels, where we share the best of what's local.
